A complete record copy is available at www.llano.tx.us under the Human Resource tab, the Human Resource office and each Elected Officials' office.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT BY EMPLOYEE

I have received a copy of the Llano County Personnel Policy handbook that outlines my benefits and obligations as a County employee. I understand that I am responsible for reading and familiarizing myself with the information in this manual and understand that it contains general personnel policies of the County. If I need clarification on any of the information in this manual, I will contact my immediate supervisor.

I understand that the use or download of prohibited applications or websites is prohibited on all County owned devices, including cell phones, tablets, desktops, laptop computers, and any other internet capable devices.

Any employee found to have violated any or all policies will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

I further understand that the Llano County Personnel Policy handbook is not a contract of employment. I understand that I am an at-will employee and that my employment may be terminated by either myself or the County, at any time, with or without cause, and with or without notice.

I understand that this employee handbook is intended to provide guidance in understanding Llano County's policies, practices, and benefits. I understand that Llano County retains the right to change this handbook at any time, and to modify or cancel any of its employee benefits when the need for change is recognized.

I further understand that as a Llano County employee, I am expected to provide quality service to the public; to work towards the highest degree of safety possible for my fellow workers, to continually make suggestions for improvements, and to display a spirit of team work and cooperation.

I understand that I will be granted compensatory time off in lieu of payment of overtime to the extent provided by law and I shall be required to take earned compensatory time off at the County's discretion. Exception is law enforcement: Sheriff has an overtime policy, section 5.27 which includes deputies, investigators, jailers, and dispatchers. Overtime will be compensated in accordance with federal law.

I understand that I may be subject to post-accident drug and alcohol testing. If I am required to have a Commercial Driver's License (CDL) for my county position, I will be subject to random, reasonable suspicion, post-accident and follow up drug and alcohol testing.

SECTION 1: GENERAL POLICIES

A: COUNTY EMPLOYMENT

1A-1 EMPLOYMENT AT-WILL

All employment with Llano County shall be considered "at will" employment. No contract of employment shall exist between any individual and Llano County for any duration, either specified or unspecified. No provision of this employee handbook shall be construed as modifying your employment at will status.

Llano County shall have the right to terminate the employment of any employee for any legal reason, or no reason, at any time either with or without notice.

Llano County shall also have the right to change any condition, benefit, policy, or privilege of employment at any time, with or without notice. Employees of Llano County shall have the right to leave their employment with the county at any time, with or without notice.

1A-2 EMPLOYEE STATUS

Each county position has an employee status that identifies how the position is paid and how benefits are granted by Commissioners' Court. This policy defines both health insurance and retirement benefits. The status of an employee cannot be changed without the approval of the Commissioners' Court. Full-time employees will be eligible for health insurance. All other classifications must be included in the county's initial and/or standard measurement periods for the Affordable Care Act.

Regular Full-Time: A full-time employee shall be any employee in a position which has a normal work schedule of at least forty (40) hours per week. Full-time employees are eligible for county health insurance and retirement benefits. Other county policies will dictate eligibility for other benefits. Employees may be non-exempt, hourly employees or exempt employees. Non-exempt employees are eligible for overtime compensation. Exempt employees are not eligible for overtime compensation. Llano County makes exempt status determination based on the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Regular Part-Time: A part-time employee shall be any employee in a position which has a normal work schedule of less than thirty (30) hours per week. All regular part-time employees must be placed on TCDRS retirement regardless of the number of hours worked per week. No other benefits apply.

Temporary Seasonal: A seasonal employee shall be any employee who is hired into a position that lasts six (6) or less months and begins at approximately the same time each year. Examples may include, but are not limited to, lifeguards, summer mowers, and election workers. The county must define and document the season that the employee is being hired for. Seasonal employees can be either part-time or full-time, and they may qualify for health insurance through the county under the Affordable Care Act. Temporary seasonal employees are not eligible for retirement benefits under TCDRS. No other benefits apply.

Regular Variable Hour: A variable hour employee shall be any employee for whom the county cannot determine the average amount of hours that the employee will work each week – hours are variable or indeterminate at the time of the employee's start date. If the employee works an average of thirty (30) or more hours a week in the measurement period, the employee will be eligible for health insurance through the county under the Affordable Care Act. If an employee's schedule becomes regular, then the employee shall be reclassified as full or part-time depending on the hours worked. Regular variable hour employees are eligible for retirement benefits under TCDRS. No other benefits apply.

Temporary Part Time: A temporary short-term, part-time employee shall be any employee who is expected to work less than thirty (30) hours each week in a position that is expected to last for a specific period of time or until a specific project is completed, but no longer than 12 months. If this project goes beyond 12 months, the employee will move into a regular part-time status. Temporary short-term, part-time employees are not entitled to any benefits under the Affordable Care Act and are also not eligible for retirement benefits under TCDRS. No other benefits apply.

Age Requirements: Persons under 18 years of age will not be employed in full time positions. Other age limitations will be only as required to comply with applicable state or federal law.

1A-3 AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT AMENDMENTS ACT

It is the policy of Llano County to prohibit any harassment of, or discriminatory treatment of employees on the basis of a disability or because an employee has requested a reasonable accommodation. If an employee feels they have been subject to such treatment, or has witnessed such treatment, the situation should be reported to your Elected official, Appointed official, department head or the county attorney. All Elected officials, Appointed officials, department heads and employees with responsibilities requiring knowledge are instructed to treat the employee's disability with confidentiality.

It is Llano County's policy to reasonably accommodate qualified individuals with disabilities unless the accommodation would impose an undue hardship on the county. In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended (ADAAA), reasonable accommodations may be provided to qualified individuals with disabilities when such accommodations are necessary to enable them to perform the essential functions of their jobs, or to enjoy the equal benefits and privileges of employment. This policy applies to all applicants for employment, and all employees. If you require accommodation, please contact your Elected official, Appointed official, department head or the County Attorney. Reasonable accommodation shall be determined through an interactive process of consultation.

B: WORK RULES AND EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITY

1B-1 ATTENDANCE

As a Llano County employee, you are expected to be punctual and demonstrate consistent attendance.

Each employee shall report to work on each day they are scheduled to work and at the starting time set by their supervisor unless prior approval for absence is given by the supervisor or the employee is unable to report for work because of circumstances beyond the control of the employee.

If an employee is unable to be at work at their normal reporting time, they shall be responsible for notifying their supervisor prior to the scheduled start of their shift or as soon as it is reasonably practicable in the case of an emergency.

Each employee shall remain on the job until the normal quitting time established by the supervisor unless permission to leave early is given by the supervisor.

Each supervisor is responsible for determining if an unscheduled absence or tardiness is to be classified as excused or unexcused, based on the circumstances causing the absence or tardiness.

Frequent unexcused absences or tardiness, as determined by your immediate supervisor, may make an employee subject to disciplinary measures, up to and including termination of employment.

An employee who does not report for work for three (3) consecutive scheduled work days, and who fails to notify the employee's supervisor, shall be considered to have resigned their position by abandonment.

1B-2 DRESS CODE

Llano County expects all employees to be well groomed, clean, and neat at all times. Each department head will determine the type of attire that is acceptable.

You are required to act in a professional manner at all times and extend the highest courtesy to co-workers and to the public being served. A cheerful and positive attitude is essential to our commitment to customer service.

1B-3 SMOKE FREE WORKPLACE

Llano County endeavors to provide a healthy environment. Therefore, any form of tobacco consumed in county vehicles, buildings, offices and facilities is prohibited. This includes the use of any electronic cigarette, nicotine vaporizer or electronic nicotine delivery system. Additionally, no smoking is allowed within twenty-five (25) feet of the exterior entranceways.

1B-4 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Employees of Llano County shall not engage in any employment, relationship, or activity which could be viewed as a conflict of interest because of the potential or appearance of affecting the employee's job efficiency, or which would reduce the employee's ability to make objective decisions in regard to the employee's work and responsibility as a Llano County employee.

Employees involved in conflict-of-interest situations shall be subject to discipline, up to and including termination and these actions may have criminal consequences for employees.

Activities which constitute a conflict of interest shall include, but not be limited to:

- a) Soliciting, accepting, or agreeing to accept a financial benefit, gift, or favor other than from the county that might reasonably tend to influence the employee's performance of duties for the county or that the employee knows or should know is offered with the intent to influence the employee's performance;
- b) Accepting employment, compensation, gifts, or favors that might reasonably tend to induce the employee to disclose confidential information acquired in the performance of official duties;
- c) Accepting outside employment, compensation, gifts, or favors that might reasonably tend to impair independence of judgment in performance of duties for the county;
- d) Making any personal investment that might reasonably be expected to create a substantial conflict between the employee's private interest and their duties for the county;
- e) Soliciting, accepting, or agreeing to accept a financial benefit from another person in exchange for having performed duties as a county employee in favor of that person.

1B-5 HARASSMENT

Llano County is committed to a workplace free of harassment. Harassment includes unlawful, unwelcome words, acts or displays based on sex, including lesbian, gay, bi-sexual or transgender status, sexual orientation or gender identity, race, color, religion, national origin, age, genetic information, pregnancy, disability, family or military leave status or veteran's status. Such conduct becomes harassment when:

- a) The submission to the conduct is made a condition of employment;
- b) The submission to, or rejection of, the conduct is used as the basis for an employment decision;
- c) The conduct creates an offensive, intimidating or hostile working environment or interferes with work performance.

Harassment is strictly prohibited by Llano County whether committed by an Elected official, Appointed official, department head, co-worker or non-employee with whom the county does business.

Employees who feel they have been harassed should immediately report the situation to the Elected or Appointed official who is responsible for the department in which they work. If, for any reason, the employee feels that reporting the harassment to the department head may not be the best course of action, the report should be made to the Human Resource administrator, County Judge or to the County Attorney.

Every reported complaint will be investigated promptly and thoroughly. While all claims of harassment shall be handled with discretion, there can be no complete assurance of full confidentiality. The official or department head to which a claim has been reported shall be responsible for seeing that prompt action is taken to investigate the claim.

Once the investigation is complete, the employee making the claim shall be notified of the result of the investigation and any actions which are to be taken.

Retaliation against an employee who reports harassment or who cooperates in the investigation is prohibited by law as well as this policy. Employees who feel they have been subjected to illegal retaliation should immediately report the situation to the Elected or Appointed official who is responsible for the department in which they work.

If, for any reason, the employee feels that reporting the retaliation to the department head may not be the best course of action, the report should be made to the Human Resource administrator, County Judge or to the County Attorney.

Remedial action will be taken in accordance with the circumstances when the county determines unlawful harassment or retaliation has occurred, up to and including termination.

1B-6 SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual harassment is strictly prohibited by Llano County, whether committed by an Elected official, Appointed official, department head, co-worker or non-employee the county does business with. It is the policy of Llano County to provide a work place free from sexual harassment for all employees and to take active steps to eliminate any sexual harassment of which the county becomes aware.

Employees engaging in sexual harassment shall be subject to discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Sexual harassment shall include, but not be limited to, unwanted sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, non-verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, which includes slurs, jokes, statements, gestures, touching, pictures, emails or cartoons where:

- a) The submission to such conduct is either an expressed or implied condition of employment;
- b) The submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a basis for an employment decision affecting the harassed person;
- c) The conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an affected person's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.

All claims of sexual harassment shall be taken seriously and investigated promptly and thoroughly. While all claims of sexual harassment shall be handled with discretion, there can be no complete assurance of full confidentiality.

Employees who feel they have been sexually harassed should immediately report the situation to the Elected or Appointed official who is responsible for the department in which they work. If, for any reason, the employee feels that reporting the harassment to the department head may not be the best course of action, the report should be made to the Human Resource administrator, County Judge or to the County Attorney.

Every reported complaint will be investigated promptly and thoroughly. The official or department head to which a claim has been reported shall be responsible for seeing that prompt action is taken to investigate the claim.

Once the investigation is complete, the employee making the claim shall be notified of the result of the investigation and any actions which are to be taken.

Use the following procedures so that your complaint may be resolved quickly and fairly.

- a) When practical, confront the harasser and ask them to stop the unwanted behavior.
- b) Record the time, place and specifics of each incident, including any witnesses.
- c) Report continuing sexual harassment to the Elected or Appointed official who is responsible for your department or to the Human Resource administrator, County Judge or the County Attorney.
- d) If a thorough investigation reveals that unlawful sexual harassment has occurred, Llano County will take effective remedial action in accordance with the circumstances, up to and including termination.

Retaliation against an employee who reports sexual harassment or who cooperates as a witness in the investigation is prohibited by law as well as this policy.

Employees who feel they have been subjected to illegal retaliation should immediately report the situation to the Elected or Appointed official who is responsible for the department in which they work. If, for any reason, the employee feels that reporting the retaliation to the department head may not be the best course of action, the report should be made to the Human Resource administrator, County Judge or to the County Attorney.

Reporting or failing to report claims in accordance with the procedure given in this policy shall not limit other legal recourse an employee may have in regard to sexual harassment charges.

1B-7 POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Employees of Llano County shall have the right to support candidates of their choice and to engage in political activity during their personal time.

County employees shall not:

- a) Use their official authority or influence to interfere with or affect the result of any election or nomination for office;
- b) Directly or indirectly coerce, attempt to coerce, command, or advise another person to pay, lend, or contribute anything of value to a party, committee, organization, agency, or person for a political reason;
- c) Use any equipment, property or material owned by the county for political activity or engage in political activity while on duty for the county.

1B-8 OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT

Llano County employees are expected to give their full and undivided attention to their job duties. They should not use Llano County facilities or equipment or their association with Llano County to carry on a private business or profession. County employees should not engage in a profit-making business nor become involved with a non-profit organization outside of their employment with Llano County that interferes with the employee's assigned duties with Llano County.

1B-9 BREAKS

The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act amended the Fair Labor Standards Act to require reasonable breaks for nursing mothers to express breast milk. The Texas Right to Express Breast Milk in the Workplace Act also imposes duties on public employers and, under other state law, is applicable for the duration of a nursing mother's need to express breast milk. Llano County supports the practice of expressing breast milk.

Llano County will provide reasonable paid breaks for a nursing mother to express breast milk. The nursing mother will be allowed whatever time is needed to express breast milk.

The county will provide the nursing mother with a private location, other than a bathroom. The location will be shielded from view and free from intrusion and appropriate for expressing breast milk. The specific location will be determined on a case-by-case basis.

Llano County does not allow any retaliation against a nursing mother for asking for this break. Nursing mothers are entitled to this break for the duration of the time they are expressing breast milk. A reasonable accommodation will be given for the needs of employees who express breast milk. An employee of the county who needs to express breast milk may not be discriminated against.

All other employee breaks are determined by each department head and are not required to be given. If your department provides you with a break, it may not be accumulated or used for time off. The Fair Labor Standards Act does not require any breaks other than for a nursing mother; however, if paid breaks are provided for employees, a nursing mother must be given the same amount of paid break time.

1B-10 GRIEVANCES

The purpose of the Llano County grievance process is to settle grievances as quickly as possible to ensure efficient work operations and maintain positive employee morale. Elected and Appointed officials, department heads and supervisors are encouraged to work with employees to resolve grievances. The grievance process does not apply to performance evaluations or performance improvement plans.

No adverse action will be taken against an employee for exercising their grievance right in good faith. The filing of a grievance does not cancel, alter or delay any disciplinary action of the employee's supervisor or Elected or Appointed department head, although a grievance related to a particular disciplinary action may be considered by the employee's supervisor and/or Elected or Appointed department head in resolution of the issue. Llano County reserves the right to proceed with any disciplinary action that is not related to or in retaliation for the use of the grievance process. Further, the act of filing a grievance does not alter the employment at will relationship in any way. It is not considered proper use if any employee raises grievances in bad faith or solely for the purposes of delay or repeatedly raised grievances that are without merit.

Any employee having a grievance related to the employee's job should discuss the grievance with the employee's immediate supervisor.

If the discussion with the immediate supervisor does not resolve the grievance, and, if the immediate supervisor is not the Elected or Appointed official with final responsibility for the employee's department, the employee shall have the right to discuss the grievance with that official. The decision of the Elected or Appointed official with final responsibility for the employee's department shall be final in all grievances.

1B-11 DISCIPLINE

Each supervisor shall have the authority to administer discipline to employees in their department for poor performance, violation of policies, disruptive behavior, or any other behavior or activity which the supervisor feels is not acceptable as it relates to the employee's job or the best interest of the department or county.

Depending on the severity of the situation, discipline may range from informal counseling up to and including immediate termination.

All County employees are "at will" employees and nothing in this policy gives an employee any contract of employment, guarantee of any duration of employment, or any other property interest in the employee's job.

Llano County retains the right to terminate the employment of any individual at any time for any legal reason, or no reason, with or without notice. The county also retains the right to change any condition, benefit, privilege, or policy of employment at any time, with or without notice.

1B-12 LICENSE AND CERTIFICATIONS

Llano County has many positions that require licenses and certifications. It is the responsibility of each employee to maintain all required licenses and certifications. If an employee is unable to renew or loses a license or certification, they must immediately notify their supervisor. If this license is a requirement for the position, the employee may be demoted, transferred or terminated. Under no circumstances will the employee be allowed to continue in the position where a license or certification is required if failure to have such license or certification is illegal under either federal or state law.

1B-13 WEATHER CLOSINGS AND EMERGENCIES

As a general practice, Llano County does not close its operations unless the health, safety, and security of county employees are seriously brought into question. When this happens, either because of severe weather conditions or other emergencies, the County Judge is responsible for initiating the closing.

The County Judge will notify the following entities for a public announcement:

Austin TV-CH14, Llano radio-KITY, Marble Falls radio-KHLB/KBAY.

Announcements of an emergency closing will, to the extent possible, specify the starting and ending times of the closing. However, each Elected or Appointed official controls the working hours of their employees, even in an emergency situation.

Many county departments are continuous operating public safety and service departments. Many county personnel will be required to work during emergency closings. Each department head is responsible for designating their own employees and providing alternate information to personnel designated as essential during emergency closings. Public safety will be foremost in the development of departmental emergency action plans.

1B-14 CONFIDENTIALITY

When mistakes do happen and are called to your supervisor's attention, Llano County will promptly make any corrections necessary. Please review your pay stub when you receive it to make sure it is correct. If you believe a mistake has occurred or if you have any questions, please use the reporting procedure outlined below. If you are overpaid the county will make the necessary corrections at the next payroll.

Employees who are classified as non-exempt employees must maintain an accurate record of the total hours you work each day. It is the responsibility of each employee to verify that their time sheets are correct. Your time sheet must accurately reflect all regular and overtime hours worked; any absences, late arrivals, early departures, and meal breaks. Do not sign your time sheet if it is not accurate.

Non-exempt employees, unless authorized by your supervisor, should not work any hours that are not authorized. Do not start work early, finish work late, work during a meal break, or perform any other extra or overtime work unless you are authorized to do so. That time worked is to be recorded on your time sheet. Employees are prohibited from performing any "off-the-clock" work. "Off-the-clock" work means work you may perform but fail to report on your time sheet. Any employee who fails to report or inaccurately reports any hours worked will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination. If anyone directs you to work without documenting your time worked, you must notify Human Resources.

It is a violation of Llano County policy for any employee to falsify a time sheet, or to alter another employee's time sheet. LLANO COUNTY PERSONNEL POLICIES

2A-17 RETIREE REHIRES

Note: TCDRS requires at least a full calendar month break in service with no pre-arranged return.

Retired employees shall be eligible to apply for open positions with Llano County as long as the following provisions are met:

- a) The retiree has been retired for at least one calendar month.
- b) No prior arrangement or agreement was made between Llano County and the retiree for re-employment.
- c) Strict adherence to normal leaving employment procedures were followed at the time of the employee's retirement.

The retiree must have a bona fide separation of employment and have been retired for a minimum of one calendar month. A bona fide separation means there is no prior agreement or understanding between Llano County and the retiree that the retiree would be rehired after retirement.

According to Rule 107.4 adopted by the TCDRS Board of Trustees, restrictions apply to Elected and Appointed officials and employees employed for the same or different position in the same or different department, employee status changes, and independent contractors.

Newly Elected officials who have recently retired from the county cannot draw their retirement because they have an arrangement to return to work for the county. Employees also cannot retire with an agreement to go work in a different department or different position. Changing employee status does not matter when determining if someone is still working for the county.

Also, an employee cannot retire from the county with an arrangement to begin work as an independent contractor either.

Rehired retirees who did not have a bona fide separation of employment may owe a 10 percent excise tax and be required to repay all of their monthly retirement payments. Abusing the retirement provisions in such a manner would violate a qualification requirement for retirement plans under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, potentially resulting in significant tax consequences for the employer, its participating members and those retired employees.

Any retiree who meets all other TCDRS requirements, who is rehired consistent with this policy, must establish a new membership with TCDRS and will be considered to be a new member for the purposes of beneficiary determination and benefit selections.

The maximum amount of paid and unpaid leave that may be used under this policy in a 12-month period is 12 weeks, except for qualifying leave to care for a covered military member with a serious injury or illness which is a maximum of 26-weeks in a 12-month period.

CONTINUED EMPLOYEE BENEFITS:

While an employee is on leave under this policy, the county will continue to pay the employee's medical plan premium at the same rate as if the employee had been actively at work. The employee is required to pay for dependent coverage and for any other coverage for which the employee would normally pay, or the coverage will be discontinued. An employee's obligation to pay for coverage will be made through regular payroll deduction while the employee is on paid leave status.

While on unpaid leave during the 12-week entitlement, the employee is required to pay for dependent coverage premiums due to the county by the 25th of each month for the next month's premium no later than 30 days after the date of the pay period in which the premium comes due. The county may cancel unpaid coverage by providing the employee advance written notice, not less than 15 days before the coverage will be cancelled for non-payment.

At the end of the 12-week leave period or the 26-week leave period in a single 12-month period to care for an injured covered military member, an eligible employee will be offered COBRA if they are unable to return to work.

INTERMITTENT LEAVE AND REDUCED SCHEDULE:

An employee may only take intermittent leave under this policy if it is necessary for the care and treatment of a serious health condition of the employee, the employee's eligible family member or the care of a covered military member or veteran.

An employee may only work a reduced schedule under this policy if it is necessary for the care and treatment of a serious health condition of the employee, the employee's eligible family member, or the care of a covered military member or veteran.

All work time missed as the result of intermittent leave or a reduced work schedule under this policy will be deducted from the employee's 12-week or 26-week leave eligibility in a single 12-month period.

CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS:

The county has the right to ask for certification of the serious health condition of the employee or the employee's eligible member when the employer requests or is using leave under this policy.

The county may send a request for medical certification to an employee who has been out of work for three or more days to determine the employee's FMLA eligibility. The employee is requested to have the employee's physician complete and return the medical certification within 15 days of the employee's receipt of the form to be eligible for FMLA. An employee's failure to return the medical certification may result in denial of FMLA by the county.

The employee must respond to the county's request for certification within 15 days of receipt of the request or provide a reasonable explanation for the delay in writing before the 15th day after receipt of the request. If an employee does not provide certification or otherwise respond, the county may deny leave under this policy.

An employee is required to provide certification of the employee's serious health condition of the employee by having the employee's treating health care provider complete and submit an FMLA form WH-380-F. Also included with this form is the Genetic Information Non-Discrimination statement to be given to any and all health care providers.

An employee is required to provide certification of the serious health condition of an eligible family member by having the family member's treating health care provider complete and submit an FMLA form WH-380-F. Also included with this form is the Genetic Information Non-Discrimination statement to be given to any and all health care providers.

An employee is required to provide certification for leave taken because of a qualifying exigency by having the employee complete and submit an FMLA form WH-384.

An employee is required to provide certification for leave taken for a serious injury or illness of a covered military member or veteran by having the member's or veteran's Department of Defense treating health care provider complete and submit an FMLA form WH-385. The employee may also be required to provide the County with confirmation of the family or next of kin relationship to the seriously injured or ill covered military member or veteran.

If an employee requests intermittent leave or a reduced work schedule, the certification submitted must also include the dates and duration of treatment and a statement of medical necessity for taking intermittent leave or working a reduced schedule. The county may request re-certification for intermittent or reduced schedule leave every six months in connection with an eligible absence.

The county may ask for a second opinion from a health care provider of the county's choice, at the expense of the county, if the county has reason to question the certification, unless the leave is necessary to care for a seriously injured or ill covered service member supported by an invitational travel order (ITO) or invitational travel authorization (ITA) to join an injured or ill service member at the employee's bedside.

If there is a conflict between the certification submitted by the employee and the second certification obtained by the county, the county may require a third certification, at the expense of the county, from a health care provider agreed upon by both the employee and the county. The third opinion is final and binding on the county and the employee.

REQUESTING LEAVE:

Unless FMLA leave is unforeseeable, an employee is required to fill out the FMLA request form provided by the Human Resource administrator.

Where reasonably practicable, an employee should give the employee's immediate supervisor a minimum of 30-days' notice before beginning leave under this policy.

Where it is not reasonably practicable to give 30-days' notice, the employee is required to give as much notice as possible.

Upon receipt of the request to use FMLA by the Human Resource administrator, proper notices will be sent and a determination will be made if qualifications have been met.

REINSTATEMENT:

An employee returning from leave under this policy, and who has not exceeded the 12-week maximum leave period allowed, will be returned to the same job or a job equivalent to the job the employee held before going on FMLA leave. An employee who has not exceeded the 26-week maximum leave period in a single 12-month period, allowed to care for a seriously ill or injured covered military member, will be returned to the same job or a job equivalent to the job the employee held before going on leave.

If an employee is placed in a different position, it will be one with equivalent status, pay, benefits, and other employment terms and which entails substantially equivalent skill, effort, responsibility, and authority.

The county has no obligation to reinstate an employee who takes more than the 12 weeks of leave allowed under this policy, or who elects not to return to work after using the maximum leave allowed, including an employee with available sick or vacation leave.

REPAYMENT OF PREMIUMS:

Unless an employee is unable to return to work because of the serious medical condition of the employee or an eligible family member, or another situation beyond the control of the employee, an employee who does not return to work after using the maximum leave allowed under this policy will be required to reimburse the county within 90 days after written demand from the Human Resource administrator for all medical premiums and other benefits paid by the county while the employee was on leave without pay related to the employee's FMLA leave.

OTHER BENEFITS:

While on leave without pay under this policy, an employee shall not earn vacation or sick leave, is not eligible for holiday pay, and shall not earn other benefits afforded to employees actively at work, except as stated in this policy.

Employees are forbidden from working another job while on approved FMLA leave from the county.

REGULATION:

Any area or issue regarding family and medical leave that is not addressed in this policy is subject to the basic requirements of the FMLA and the regulations issued to implement it.

ENFORCEMENT:

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer for unlawful discrimination under the FMLA. The FMLA does not affect any federal or state law prohibiting discrimination or supersede any federal or state law that provides greater family of medical leave rights.

2B-14 RETURN TO WORK

An employee is required to provide a fitness-for-duty certification before the employee returns to work. The certification will be completed by a health care provider to assess the ability to perform the essential job functions.

COORDINATION WITH ATTENDING PHYSICIAN:

An employee on leave due to a work-related injury can return to work only when Llano County receives the attending physician's written medical release authorizing such return. The Human Resource administrator in conjunction with the department head is responsible for providing the physician with a copy of the employee's job description, copies of job descriptions for potential modified duty assignments and written information explaining Llano County's return to work program.

JOB DESCRIPTIONS:

The Human Resource department is responsible for working with supervisors to ensure that job descriptions accurately and completely describe the essential functions of each position. Each department head works with the Human Resources administrator and medical consultants to analyze any new modified duty position and develop a job description describing the essential functions of that position.

RETURN TO WORK OPTIONS:

Arrangements to facilitate an employee's early return to work are made in consultation with the employee's attending physician and/or other qualified medical professionals retained by Llano County or its' insurance carrier. The following options are explored:

- a) Return to prior position - An employee is offered the opportunity to return to the employee's prior position if the attending physician certifies that the employee can perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodations. The Human Resources administrator is responsible for working with the employee's supervisor and attending physician (and third party consultants as necessary) to provide any reasonable accommodations.
- b) Modified Duty - Any employees who are not yet able to return to their former duties are offered (subject to the restrictions set out in section 5 of this policy) a temporary modified duty assignment that has been approved by the employee's attending physician. The Human Resources administrator is responsible for working with employee's supervisor and the employee's attending physician to develop and implement the modified duty assignment. The assignment can consist of the employee's job with reduced working hours and or activities or an alternate modified duty position.

RESTRICTIONS ON MODIFIED DUTY ASSIGNMENTS:

These restrictions apply to modified duty assignments;

- a) No guarantee of work, as provided in "Return to Work" of this policy, Llano County will endeavor to return employees to gainful employment as soon as possible by exploring possible modified duty assignments. However, Llano County does not guarantee the availability of modified duty work.
- b) Pay rates and Workers' compensation benefits - Employees on modified duty are guaranteed the rate of pay equal to no less than TIBS (Temporary Income Benefits as defined by the Department of Insurance)
- c) Four (4) week limit - Modified duty assignments are temporary arrangements intended to compliment and facilitate the healing process. Modified duty assignments cannot exceed four (4) weeks without prior approval from the department head.

LLANO CONTY PERSONNEL POLICIES

EMPLOYEE REFUSAL OF WORK AND OR TRAINING:

In the event that an employee refuses to return to regular or modified duties in response to a written, bona fide offer of employment by Llano County sent via certified mail, the employee is separated from Llano County and the employee's position will be filled permanently. An exception to this rule applies in the case of employees who have not yet exhausted their FMLA entitlement. A written offer of employment must clearly state:

- a. The position offered and the duties of the position;
- b. Llano County's agreement to any limitations or conditions set out in the attending physician's certification of the employee's fitness to return to work;
- c. The essential functions for that position;
- d. The wage, working hours and location for that position.

PERMANENT DISABILITIES:

When reaching maximum medical improvement, an employee can have a permanent disability that impairs the employee's ability with or without reasonable accommodations to return to the employee's regular position. Llano County, in consultation with the employee's attending physician and Texas Association of Counties, (Workers' Compensation Insurance) may evaluate the following options:

- a. Securing vocational rehabilitation services from Texas Rehabilitation Commission or private consultants as appropriate. Services can include assessment and testing, counseling and training.
- b. Finding a position at Llano County commensurate with the employee's knowledge, skills and abilities.

Employees with partial permanent disabilities may be paid partial or total permanent disability benefits as required under the Texas Workers' Compensation program.

MEDICAL INFORMATION:

All employee medical information is held in strict confidence in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Medical inquiries are limited to those permitted under the Texas Workers' Compensation statute and applicable federal law.

COORDINATION WITH FMLA:

Nothing in this policy should be construed as denying employees their rights under the Family Medical Leave Act or any federal or state law.

It is Llano County's policy to designate an employee's leave due to a work-related injury or illness as FMLA leave, to the extent of an employee's modified duty assignment toward the employee's FMLA entitlement.

Employees entitled to FMLA leave can voluntarily accept modified duty assignments while they are recuperating, but they cannot be required to do so. (This refusal can result in the loss of Workers' Compensation temporary income benefits). Employees who lose their Workers' Compensation benefits as a result of declining a modified duty assignment are required to substitute any available paid leave, such as accrued vacation, sick leave for unpaid FMLA leave.

Until employees have exhausted their 12-week entitlement of FMLA, they have the right to be reinstated to their original job or equivalent job provided that they are able to perform the essential functions of that job.

2B-15 ADMINISTRATIVE LEAVE

An employee may be placed on administrative leave with pay at the discretion of the Elected or Appointed official and with direction of the County Attorney. Administrative leave with pay will be assigned when the employee is the subject or witness in an investigation and it is in the best interest that the employee be removed from the workplace.

Depending on the outcome of the investigation, the employee may be subject to termination.

An employee may be placed on administrative leave without pay at the discretion of the Elected or Appointed official as a disciplinary measure. Notice of such action will be documented and will be placed in the employee's personnel file and reported on the time sheet.

The Elected or Appointed official will notify the HR Director immediately, in writing of the employee's status of administrative leave either with pay or without pay.
